How to use your City Card

ACTIVATION OF YOUR CARD

The City Card is made up of two elements:

- (1) free entrance to museums, attractions and a canal cruise
- (2) free access to public transport in Amsterdam (GVB).

The museums element of your card is automatically activated the first time you visit a museum or attraction or take a canal cruise.

The public transport element is automatically activated the first time you check in a tram, city bus or metro.

Each element can be activated any time through 31 December 2020 and is then valid for 24, 48, 72, 96 or 120 hours, depending on your card.

WHAT'S INCLUDED?

Free entrance to museums & attractions

Simply show your card at the ticket counter. All participating locations can be visited once.

Please note:

To visit the Van Gogh Museum, you must book your compulsory time slot ticket in advance at iamsterdam.com/timeslot

Free canal cruise

Each cardholder is entitled to one canal cruise in Amsterdam, Haarlem and Zaanse Schans. Choose between the different locations indicated on the map and show your card at the ticket counter.

Free unlimited use of GVB public transport in Amsterdam

On GVB buses, trams and metros, simply check in and out on every journey by holding your card against the card reader. Use of night buses is included in the City Card.

Free giveaways & 25% discount

Show your card at any participating location to get your discount or freebie. Remember to present your card before ordering food & drinks. All discount offers are valid for the entire calendar year, through 31 December 2019. It's not possible to get the discount before arrival or through online pre-booked tickets. City Card offers cannot be combined with other offers or discounts.

Free copy of I amsterdam Magazine

The city's official cultural magazine, full of insider tips to help you get the most out of Amsterdam.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Surcharges

Please note that you may be required to pay a supplement to visit special exhibitions in museums and for special boat tours, for instance during the Amsterdam Light Festival (Nov-Jan).

Information & help desk

If you have any problems regarding your City Card, visit the I amsterdam Visitor Centre across from Central Station (see city map F4) or check the FAQ at iamsterdam.com/citycardhelp.

WHAT DO THE COLOURED NUMBERS MEAN?

1 Free giveaways & discounts in Amsterdam Area

Public transport in Amsterdam & the region

Free use of Amsterdam's public transport

The I amsterdam City Card provides you with free use of Amsterdam's public transport. The public transport component of your Card is activated when you first check in on a GVB bus, tram or metro. After activation, each component is valid for 24, 48, 72, 96 or 120 hours, depending on the duration of your card of choice. It's also valid for transport at night, on night buses, but keep in mind that trams and metros stop running after 00:30.

Train travel from the airport

Train travel, such as the journey from Amsterdam Airport Schiphol to Amsterdam Central Station, is not included in the City Card. Instead, you can purchase additional public transport tickets such as the Amsterdam Travel Ticket, or the Amsterdam & Region Travel Ticket, which is a great way to explore the Amsterdam Area. All travel tickets can be bought at the I amsterdam Visitor Centres.

Amsterdam & Region Travel Ticket: discover the Amsterdam Area

To truly experience Amsterdam, go beyond the borders of the city centre and discover the Amsterdam Area! In less than 30 minutes, you'll find yourself in excellent shopping cities like Haarlem, amongst the majestic windmills of the Zaanse Schans, strolling through extravagant castles with beautiful gardens or taking in the quaint charms of historic towns like Volendam and Marken.

Combine your I amsterdam City Card with the Amsterdam & Region Travel Ticket – a special public transport ticket valid on trains, metros, trams and buses operated by NS, GVB, Connexxion, EBS and allGo (Almere) in the Amsterdam Area.

The Amsterdam & Region Travel Ticket is available for 1, 2 or 3 days and is valid on any of the routes listed on the public transport map of the Amsterdam Area. Tickets can be purchased at the I amsterdam Visitor Centres or the I amsterdam Store in Amsterdam, or the ticket counters of the participating public transport companies.

Rembrandt & the Dutch Golden Age

iamsterdam.com/rembrandt2019

Self-portrait, Rembrandt van Rijn, c. 1628

2019 marks the 350th anniversary of the death of Rembrandt van Rijn, the greatest Master of the Dutch Golden Age. Several Dutch cultural institutions commemorate Rembrandt's legacy with special events and exhibitions, many of which are included in your City Card:

Jewish Historical Museum

Included in the City Card, see more details on page 16.

Rembrandt's masterpiece from the Israel Museum

13 Sep-10 Nov 2019

This unique exhibition displays Rembrandt's masterpiece 'St. Peter in Prison (The Apostle Peter Kneeling)', a work that exemplifies Rembrandt's genius at portraying states of mind and spiritual qualities through the language of light and shadow. The painting is part of the Netherlandish art collection from the Israel Museum in Jerusalem, and has not been on display in the Netherlands for the last 120 years.

Museum Het Rembrandthuis

Included in the City Card, see more details on page 19.

Rembrandt's Social Network

1 Feb-19 May 2019

This exhibition focuses on Rembrandt's friends and acquaintances, and the role they played in his life and work. The informality of the paintings, drawings and prints is striking, and the exhibition includes work by Rembrandt that has rarely, if ever, been seen in the Netherlands.

The workshop of Rembrandt, Museum Het Rembrandthuis

Inspired by Rembrandt

7 Jun-1 Sep 2019

Museum Het Rembrandthuis is not just Rembrandt's former home and workshop; for more than a century it has been a museum with its own collection, which consists primarily of works on paper. This exhibition features the most remarkable examples from the museum's collection inspired by Rembrandt.

Laboratorium Rembrandt

21 Sep 2019-16 Feb 2020

How did Rembrandt make his paintings and etchings? And how do we go about investigating this today? For this exhibition, the museum creates a laboratory-like setting in which new insights and the Master's secrets are revealed.

Rijksmuseum

Included in the City Card, see more details on page 22.

Isaac and Rebecca ('The Jewish Bride'),
Rembrandt van Rijn, c. 1665 - c. 1669

All the Rembrandts

15 Feb-10 Jun 2019

Nowhere in the world can you find more Rembrandts than in the Rijksmuseum, and the entire collection is on display for the first time ever. With 22 paintings, 60 drawings and the best 300 examples of his 1,300 prints, this special exhibition provides a complete and versatile picture.

Rembrandt-Velázquez

11 Oct 2019-19 Jan 2020

A comprehensive overview of the extraordinary paintings by the two great 17th century Masters from the Netherlands and Spain. Thanks to a unique collaboration between the Museo del Prado and the Rijksmuseum, masterpieces by Velázquez and Rembrandt, as well as Murillo, Vermeer, Zurbarán, Hals and Ribera, are displayed together for the first time.

Stadsarchief Amsterdam – City Archives

Included in the City Card, see more details on page 23.

The Private World of Rembrandt

until 7 Apr 2019

This exhibition gets up close and personal with Rembrandt and his art by bringing to light the (known and unknown) stories of the Dutch Master through original 17th century documents about his daily life, work, clients, wives, children and financial problems. An unmissable exhibition for enthusiasts of the painter, his art and the 17th century.

Museum De Lakenhal – Leiden

25% discount on entrance fee, see more details on page 28.

The museum opens its doors to the public on 18 June 2019.

Young Rembrandt

3 Nov 2019-9 Feb 2020

Almost 400 years after their creation, works produced in Leiden by the now internationally famous Master return to the city of his birth. With approximately 40 paintings, 120 etchings and 20 drawings on show, visitors can see how the young painter's talent developed and flourished.

Man in Oriental Costume ('The Noble Slav'),
Rembrandt van Rijn 1632

Mauritshuis Royal Picture Gallery – The Hague

25% discount on entrance fee, see more details on page 28.

Rembrandt and the Mauritshuis

31 Jan-15 Sep 2019

The Mauritshuis has one of the world's most renowned and important collections of paintings by Rembrandt. The museum is exhibiting all of the 18 paintings in its collection that are or have been attributed to Rembrandt as well as paintings that are no longer considered to be by Rembrandt and are rarely, if ever, on display.

Nicolaes Maes

17 Oct 2019-19 Jan 2020

The Mauritshuis presents the first retrospective exhibition of Nicolaes Maes, one of Rembrandt's most talented pupils. Featuring over 30 paintings, the exhibition shows Maes' varied oeuvre, from the biblical representations he painted at the start of his career through his intimate domestic scenes of subsequent years to his elegant style of portraiture from the 1660s onwards.
